

I do not believe that the technology--called broadband power line, or BPL, should be allowed to proceed. It does not seem that the power companies should be allowed to interfere with so many other groups communications (i.e. ARRL). There are plenty of broadband providers out there, and are growing daily. Please do not allow BPL to proceed.

Thanks,

David Breiland